

Exercise on equation and theorem-type environments

Proposition 1. Suppose that

$$a = b. \tag{1}$$

If in addition to (1) we have

$$b = c, \tag{2}$$

then $a = c$.

Proof. It follows from equations (1) and (2) that $a = c$. □

Proposition 1 is rather trivial.